President's Message

Well, the BCCA is now entering its eighth year with almost 11,000 active members. On behalf of all of us who have returned from Convention VII in Kansas City, I would like to thank Jack Turner, Bruce Gregg and the KC's Best Chapter for our most successful Convention ever (we had one helluva good time!). The 1150 members and 2060 total people in attendance breaks both previous Convention records.

I don't know how many guys personally voiced their approval to me of two innovations at Kansas City: individual table assignment in the trading area, and special sessions for foreign, full can, and cone top collectors. In any event, please take note Milwaukee!

By this time I guess most of you know that it will be Chocolate-town USA for the 1980 Convention. I would like to offer my personal congratulations to the Keystone Chapter for their successful bid for Hershey, PA. And thanks also to the Gateway Chapter and the Cowboy Chapter for their presentations and fine competitive spirit. Kansas City showed again that the challenge and competition afforded by our open Convention site bidding continues to be one of the highlights of our Conventions (and besides, how else would we get all those extra hospitality rooms!)

Your new officers and board members for the ensuing year are listed below, and details of other matters discussed at the Kansas City business meeting can be found in the minutes thereof which are printed later in this News Report.

Your board of directors made a notable decision at its September 29th board meeting to extend the advance voting on Convention sites from 3 years to 4 years. This means that we will be voting on both the 1981 and 1982 sites in Milwaukee next year. This unanimous decision resulted from the many suggestions I received to that effect in Kansas City from both past and future Convention chairmen. As the club continues to grow in size, more advance notice is necessary to obtain larger Convention facilities.

As your new president, I am looking forward to working with all of you on another good year for the club. By the time you get this issue, Thanksgiving will be only a short time away — so may you all have a happy holiday season!

Billy

James F. Tate (left) president of Falls City Brewing Co. and Billy Carter brew up a new business relationship to market a new beer. The brand, developed for and named "Billy" in honor of Carter, is to be marketed nationally. Initial quantities of the new lager were to be introduced in Georgia about November 1.

Billy Carter was catapulted into the national limelight when his older brother was elected President. "It complicated the hell out of my life," says Carter who, until recently, operated a successful peanut warehouse in Plains, Georgia, that had been in his family for years. National attention changed the quiet lifestyle Carter had always known and forced him to sell his family business and move from his home.

"But I'm a businessman," Carter boasts, "And I was itching to find something else to get into. For me, the beer thing was a natural, 'cause I know a good beer better than anybody. Who knows? Maybe I'll become the Col. Sanders of beer?"

PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE

Do not write to the Falls City Brewing Company asking to buy cans of BILLY Beer. They will inform you that they will be unable to sell or give you air filled or empty cans.

Cold Spring feeling heady over 'Billy' beer contract

By VIRGIL SMITH
Business Writer

Myron C. Johnson answers his phone these days with a hearty chuckle.

Johnson is president of the 104-year-old Cold Spring Brewing Co. which has snared a contract to brew and distribute "Billy" beer, a beer that will be brewed to the taste of Billy Carter of Plains, Ga., brother of President Jimmy Carter.

The brewery is located in Cold Spring, Minn., about 15 miles southwest of St. Cloud.

The contract, Johnson said, spells out the brewery's territory and a substantial royalty for the President's brother.

"We'll start brewing at the end of this week and the first Billy beer should be ready for marketing about Nov. 10," Johnson said in an interview from the Cold Spring plant.

"Billy tasted several beers," Johnson said, "and the one he selected is a heavier beer, very unlike the light beers now coming on the market. Billy beer will be more malty and flavorful."

"Billy said the new beer will be 'drinkable and you'll be able to enjoy more without exploding,'" Johnson quoted Billy Carter.

The private formula beer will be priced as a premium beer, Johnson said, and packaged in a white, orange and blue can.

At the top of the label will be, "Brewed especially for and with the personal approval of one of America's all-time great beer drinkers. Billy Carter."

At the bottom of the label will be Billy's personal endorsement, "I had this beer brewed up just for me. I think it's the best I ever tasted, and I've tasted a lot. I think you'll like it, too." Carter's signature appears beneath the endorsement.

First announcement of the Carter brand beer was made last week by the falls City Brewery at Louisville, Ky. That firm has begun brewing the beer for its markets.

"Cold Spring was chosen by Billy to brew and market this beer," Johnson said, "because it is a relatively small regional brewery and can provide the close personal involvement of people at all levels to insure that Billy beer retains the quality that Billy insists upon."

"Despite the regional status," Johnson continued, "the Cold Spring Brewery has some of the most modern equipment and facilities in the industry."

Johnson said Cold Spring's capacity has been about 1½ million cases annually. About $1.4 million has been spent to expand production capacity by about four times.

Cold Spring's projected first year production of a million cases will be distributed in 14 states, including those bordering Minnesota. The brewery will continue production of its other brands of beer.

THE PLAYBOY CHAPTER (Tontines need not apply) is formed after the Saturday business meeting. To qualify for membership, you must have been to every convention except the first one. If you missed Kansas City's Convention VII, you need not apply, either. Officers are: Dick Adamowicz #344 Pres., Rich La Susa #609 VP, John Vetter #369 Sec. & Trea., and Tobi Harms #586 Correspondant.

A QUOTE: "If beer can manufacturers were smart, they'd make obsoletes!" (Ron Moermond said that.)  When asked how many cans he has in his collection, Wm Christensen replied: "I don't count; I just collect." (Note: Only Christensen would speak with a ;.)  A new can (Gold Brew), only hours old, was issued to all attendees at the Board meeting. With the precious new issue in his pocket, one Board member took the elevator back to his room. Or tried to. The elevator, you see, almost sqoze the poor guy to death when it got him betwixt its doors. The man's comment after escaping from the harrowing ordeal: "Good grief! I almost had the first Gold Brew dumper!"  The hard sell was overheard as one collector tried to put The Story on another at the trading session: "This can may send your kid through college!"  A couple of Conventions ago, Ted Stolinski was showing off his collection of cutdown Iron City cans. Remember? Now it is revealed who made them originally--Dick Clark. Ted and others have been scratching their heads and trying to remember who 'twas for quite some time.  It was revealed that a grade 3 Ski Country is worth a lot more than a mint one. Because it's so much rarer. Interesting, eh?  At the Holiday Inn, the hall phone rang. So Tyler Hall answered it. "It's my phone, isn't it?"  Shar Berg asked Bill Henderson how come he was drinking out of a glass. Henderson's reply: "When you get old, you need glasses."  Keith Whitmore #3540 calls himself the Tayter Trader, right? Which is why he was going around handing out 'Tayters brand potato chips packages with "BOSTON IN '81" stickers stuck thereupon. And encouraged all to bottom-open the potato chip packages. Of course. Tayter also handed out his card a lot. A very fancy two-color spectacular with raised lettering. "I figured that I have a lousy personality," he explained, "so I have to have good cards so people will remember me."  Hal Leeker told this story about being in a donut shop in South St. Louis and seeing a gal there with a Duffy's sweatshirt from Denver. Hal said, "I was there!" Gal's reply: "I wasn't. Somebody brought it to me."  Christensen is a member of the Tontine Chapter. But he's eager to become the last remaining member (meaning he wants to be the last to have attended every Convention). So he wants the Conventions to be held in the least accessible place we can find. (Or can't find, actually.)  More on Tontine: Christensen has stated that he will force the cancellation of any Convention he can't attend. And, according to him, he almost had to make good his threat in re Convention VII. "For awhile, I wasn't sure that I would be able to make it," he explained. "Hence, the rain. Then, when it turned out that I could come after all, I shut it off." Thanks, Bill.  Still more on Tontine: Bob Leslie is promoting a little recreational jaunt for Tontine Members (other than himself, of course). "It's a charter nonstop balloon trip across the Atlantic." And back, we'll bet, if they make it.  Ron Moermond, the morning after one of those nights of heavy bottom-opening at Convention VII: "I'd have to heal up to die."  A member suggested yet another reason not to get involved in the crass commercial side of our beloved hobby: "I have taken a vow of poverty--and I'm not even religious!"  The Muehlebach, according to those who stayed there, is a Grade Two, or possibly a High Grade Three.  Attendance: 1,998 folk, broken down thusly: 1,101 members, 897 guests, and one Harry Keithline. 42 states were represented. And a trio of Canadians graced the scene.  We now have 94 chapters, said Jim Thole. We are averaging 222 classified ads a month, said Bob McClure.  A quote from Hal Leeker as he introduced our new prexy: "Thank God, your new President, Jim Thole."  The assigned table system used in Bartle Hall was a great idea. Worked well.  Sure sign of a counterfeit can: Any aluminum can with rust.  A SCOOP! Marsha Majors (Miss Olde F.) may very well be expecting a minor Majors in early '78.  Steve Batzell #11048 and Clarissa Rowe were wed the Saturday before the Convention. So the Convention was also their honeymoon.  The Convention was no honeymoon for Max Robb, though. He had his usual luck (none at all) trying to trade his target gallons. (Those are the ones that have been side-opened with a .357 magnum.) Finally, he gave up and tossed one of the worst ones down the hotel incinerator. And you know what happened? The incinerator didn't want it, either. The gallon came flying right back up the chute.  A lottery was held at one table at the banquet wherein one was supposed to guess how many times applause would punctuate the proceedings. The answer was 67. George Eckert was the winner of the lottery.  A new term that was heard (and is truly useful): "Dumper dumpers." Those are cans that are really rusty. So they're dumper than ordinary dumpers.  A bone of contention in re the displays was the question: "What is a flattop, anyway?" Is it any nonecone (even a pull-tab)? Or is it any can that requires a churchkey (not pull-tabs)?  "No doubt about it," a conventioneer was heard to say, "this has to be the most overweight group of people meeting anywhere." Let's see. If the average excess poundage for each of the 1,101 BCCAers in KC was 20 lbs., that means Convention VII was about eleven tons overweight. And by the time the Convention was over... Well, we earned it!

CANvention XI and XII

It has become widely recognized that the increasing size of our club now necessitates the planning of our Convention further in advance. Therefore, your Board of Directors voted at its September meeting to extend our site selection from three years to four years in advance. This means that we will be voting for both the 1981 and 1982 Convention sites in Milwaukee in September, 1978. If your chapter would like to host the Convention in either 1981 or 1982, write the BCCA (747 Merus Ct., Fenton, MO 63026) for a Convention bid application. All applications must be received by the BCCA no later than June 15, 1978.

Business Meeting
Beer Can Collectors of America 7th Annual Convention
Kansas City, MO --- September 17, 1977

The meeting was called to order by Hal Leeker #843 at 8:00 a.m.

Hal welcomed all members to the 7th Annual Convention in Kansas City.

Hal reported that 1,101 members were attending the Convention. In addition we also have 897 guests. We have representation from 42 states and 3 members from Canada.

Hal introduced the Officers and Board Members who served the BCCA throughout the year.

Hal asked for a motion to follow the agenda as printed and distributed to each member. Said motion was made by Larry Maxton #129. Second by Warren Taylor #175. Passed by voice vote.

Bob Campbell #1178 read the audit report which verified that all receipts and disbursements during the current fiscal year were accounted for and the financial books of the club were in order.

Hal Leeker then announced the presentations for the 1980 Convention.

Henry Herbst #70 on behalf of the Greater St. Louis Area Chapters, Bluff City; Gateway; McDonnell-Douglas; Valley of the Flowers and Van Dyke, presented a bid for the City of St. Louis to host the 1980 Convention.

Emil Skala #11771, on behalf of the Keystone Chapter invited everyone to attend Convention X in Hershey, PA.

Jeff Berg #799, on behalf of the Cowboy Chapter, presented Casper, WY as a host city for 1980.

Hal Leeker then asked everyone to vote for the host city of his or her choice on the yellow ballot. Each ballot should be signed.

Jim Thole #410 reported that we now have 94 chapters.

Lonnie Smith #99 reported on several changes in the News Report. Lew Cady #98 who wrote a column called "Conversations & Coorespondence" left the staff with his final article in the July News Report. His place will be taken by Jeff Berg #799 who will write a new column with a different title. "Whitey" Hitchcock #6199 will now be in charge of the "Calendar of Events". Marcella Schinski #3715 will be the foreign can editor. Lonnie also reported that the club went to second class mailing of the News Report. This is purported to be better mail service, but still some complaints about delays are received. We could go to first class but the difference in postage is so excessive the club could not justify the expenditure. There will be a change in the calendar of events in order that past trading sessions will not show when you receive the report. The want ads are being removed from the News Report and it is hoped that they will go out in a separate mailing every 45 days.

Bob McClure #104, Editor of the Want Ads, reported that over the last 14 months the lowest number of ads was 127 and the highest was 359. The average being 227 per issue. Some ads receive so many responses the placer of the ad has requested it be removed.

Jack Turner #65 reported that the biggest single expense of the registration fee for the Convention was the banquet. He has received some complaints that it be dropped. A show of hands overwhelmingly indicated that the banquet meal should remain a part of the Convention. Jack said that there is much talk of a regional convention site vs. free choice. He asked for comments. Marcia Butterbaugh #6560 presented three points on why conventions should be left to free competitive bidding by cities regardless of their location for a particular year and not force the Convention into a particular area. She then made a motion that this be voted on by the members present. Hal Leeker advised that a committee had been established the preceding night to determine the pro's and con's and make a recommendation on this matter. Marcia withdrew her motion on promise that the committee would take action.

Hal Leeker asked for a show of hands vote to determine if the members prefer the foreign composite to be listed in country order. The reaction favored it.

Hal announced the winner of Convention X in 1980 to be Hershey, PA with 219 votes, St. Louis received 199 votes and Casper, WY 36 votes.

Gil Brennell #13, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, placed the following names on the slate for Board of Directors: from St. Louis area, Bob Corbett #3235; for other regions, Marcia Butterbaugh #6560, Phoenix, AZ; Phil Daufel #2463, Haywood, CA; Al Milnar #818, Gretna, LA and Gregg Sokolowski #986, Chicago, IL.

Nominations were then accepted from the floor: Max Robb #116 nominated Ron Moermond #224. Second by Bud Mazzeo #1504. Mark Sweeney #3689 nominated Harry Keithline #23 for St. Louis area. Second by Ron Andracsek #157. Richard Kohrs #12000 nominated Ron Andracsek #157 for St. Louis area. Second by Lois Hiestand #288. Ray Knisley #877 nominated Wil Hartlep #3109. Bruce Gregg #248 nominated Norvell Shappell #2347. Second by Walter Cary #2529.

Paul Ladefoged #39 made a motion to close nominations. Second by Roger Kirkpatrick #1583. Passed by voice vote.

Hal Leeker reviewed the names, then asked everyone to mark the blue ballot. Winners will be announced at the banquet.

On new business Martin Landey #78 made a motion that the entire membership be allowed to vote on both the time and the site for each Convention. Second by Bob Corbett #3235. A discussion followed with various members making comments on the subject. Bob Dean #1254 made a request that the motion be amended to separate the issue of time and place. The Parliamentarian, Jim Henry #1905, ruled to accept the amendment and requested a vote on each item. Martin Landey accepted the change to his motion. Hal Leeker asked everyone to stand who were in favor of the entire membership voting on the time for future Conventions. The count was 190. Those opposed stood next; the vote was 234. Motion on the time for Conventions defeated. Hal then asked for a vote in the same manner on the issue of the site. The vote this time was overwhelming against the motion.

There was a suggestion from the floor that patches be made up for the past Conventions. Hal Leeker commented that the time and cost does not justify it at this time.

Ollie Olson #1132 complimented the assigned table arrangement at the trading session. He then criticized the BCCA for handing out special test cans, in this case the Olympia cans which he had brought as traders and now were of no use to him. Hal Leeker commented that the cans were donated by the brewery and for public relations with them, we do not turn down their offers.

Marie Miller #9707 wants the Board to look into the possibility of a family plan for joining the BCCA.

Al Parker #5503 suggested that in recognition of our younger members that a Junior Collector of the Year also be named. He suggested that this can be done by a point system where a young member receives credit for each new member he has join the club.

Buck Bannon #792 commented that the family plan would in the long run cost the club money and he could not see how it could be supported. He also said he liked the idea of test cans being handed out at the Convention and hoped it would continue. He stated that this was a better idea then giving them to can merchants to sell. The members responded with an overwhelming reaction of approval. He also complimented the special trading sessions e.g. cone tops, foreign, etc. at the Convention.

Jim Holt #1789 made a suggestion that the ideas discussed at the President's Chapter meeting be incorporated into the general meeting so the same items will not be brought up again to save time.

Hal Leeker thanked everyone for the help he received during the past year and then turned the gavel over to Jim Thole #410, the new president.

Jim Thole complimented Hal Leeker for the excellent performance during the past year. In particular for the new Roster format and for setting up the new BCCA office.

Victor Contarini #188 made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 9:25 a.m. Second by Warren Taylor #175. Motion passed.

Respectfully submitted,

Jim Hipes #406
Secretary, BCCA

Two men were talking about prohibition. "The driest town I ever saw was in Kansas," said one.

"They couldn't sell liquor there at all?" he was asked.

"Only if you had been bitten by a snake," said the traveler.

"They only had one snake in town, and when I got to it one day, after standing in line for nearly 12 hours, it was too tired to bite."

BEER CAN collectors might note that Hudepohl Beer cans that were put out to commemorate the 1976 World Series have an error in the score that should add to their popularity as a collectors' item. The cans have the wrong score for the fourth game of the series.

T-shirts

A big thing in K.C. was the creative T-shirts. These are just a few examples.

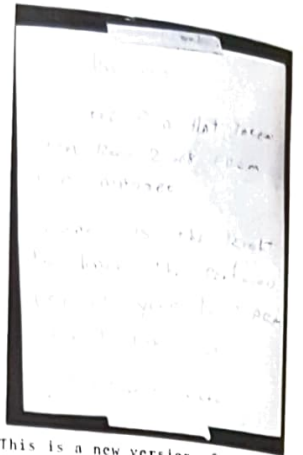

Guess who this is!

Ably assisted by one each beautiful secretary (Kathy McClellan), brainy Ph. D. in chemistry Jeff Eilert #765, and wise lab technician Sherry Mullen #15300, and Tyler Hail (founder of the Central City Bureau of Standards) conducted alcohol content experiments in the hospitality room.

This is a new version of a WANTED poster. Bud does have much sentimental value to his stolen hat. And rightly so.

Even hats, horns, whistles, placards etc. wasn't enough to bring a victory to the St. Louis area Chapters who were making a bid for Convention X.

Dick Sivils #4910 introduces a new element to the wonderful world of conventioning. Note the list he displayed.

Terrance Woodall #3935 makes Kaycee a family affair.

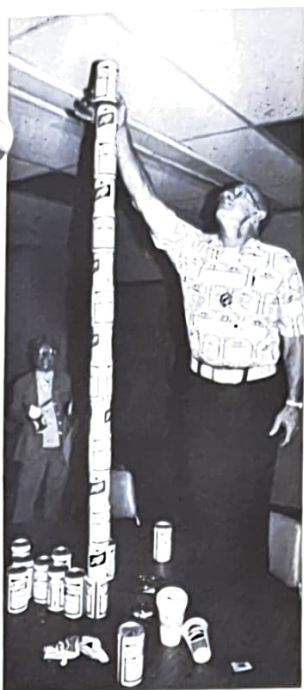

Ken Krakow #7103 is looking for a trade, trador, wife, or ?

What goes up...

...must come down.

Oh damn I spilled them again!

That's a bunch

The usual local television stations drop by.

One of the "Specials" in KC were areas set aside for specific interests such as the cone top trading area as pictured above.

Yes the registration desk was a busy place. All of KC's Best Chapter were red Derby hats (that's so we knew who our hosts were)

It doesn't look like a beer can!

With friends.

DID YOU KNOW ?

by Dick Rausche #526

Did you know that in METBREW NEAR BEER, besides having a slight color variation from orange to gold in the border of the crest & slogan, there are two different slogans. One says "A Seasoned Brew of the Highest Quality Made from Malt and Choice Hops". The other can says, "Made with Selected Malt and Choice Hops".

Did you know that in the latest TUBORG, it says, "Brewed under Licence and authority of Tuborg Breweries, Denmark. Brewed in USA". The previous can said, "Copenhagen".

Did you know that SPECIAL EXPORT, pg 122 HMN9 shows the word "Beer" under Export....but there is also a can without the word "Beer".

Did you know that in FITGERS, the flattop, one says, "Flavor of the Great North Shore" while another says, "Naturally Brewed-Naturally Better".

Did you know that the most current UTICA CLUB is slightly different? Well, it is...but you'll never see it unless you hold the two cans side by side. The words, "Utica Club" are the same script but just a bit thicker, the red just a bit redder and the figure in the circle in quite a bit clearer. The contents are also printed sharper.

Did you know that Utica Club has finally put the comma between the words, "rice" and "grain"? This grammatical error has finally been corrected. Note: The bottle was always correct. (UC CREAM ALE)

Did you know that in the most current GABLINGERS has now "355 ML"? Well, that's not what I'm reporting. The can just previous to this, the orange one, has a variation. One has a white stripe at the top, and the other does not. On the one with the stripe, the oval is set about 1/8" higher.

Did you know that on SOUTHERN SELECT (Cone top "Crowntainer") there are two different backgrounds? One background is silver and one is white!

Scott Dickie #13629 reports that there are 22 cans in the Schmidt series by Heilmann. He reports that the water skier on one can is white and on another, tan. Both cans were in the same 12 pack!

As you may have noticed, Did You Know was missing for a couple of months. I've just been too busy to do a good job. Anyone interested in continuing to editing this column, please contact me (Dick Rausche #526) and send a copy to Lonnie Smith. Thanx!

Fortunate for me, unfortunate for the rest, but time and space did not allow each CANventioneer to have his/her BCCA number listed. But then, you know if you were there. Don't you?

Massachusetts	11

What do the following states have in common? Alaska, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Maine, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Oregon, Rhode Island, and Utah. Well by golly, they didn't even send one member to CANvention VII. For the record, attendance in K.C. was 2060 which includes 1150 members. See you in Milwaukee for sure.

Respectfully submitted,
Herb Schwarz #1922

The Tontine Chapter. These 45 fellows have attended all seven Conventions. Their membership did not decrease this year.

What does one do with all those very current Bud and Schlitz empties consumed at the Saturday night banquet? You build a huge column of beer cans. Probably bigger than any column of beer cans ever constructed. Photo 1 shows the column starting to grow as Miss Beer Can observes (or as we observe Miss Beer Can). In photo 2 we see it growing. Now in photo 3-WOW! Photo 4 shows all are sensing the crash to be imminent. LOOK OUT! There seems to be a scuffle breaking out (staged so we hear) in photo 5. As we see in photo 6 the column comes tumbling down. Photo 7-The clean up. The column was constructed by: Joey Karl #3655, Brad Wagner, Peter Sutter, Sean Conrad #8232, Donald Raines #8283, Bill Coens #1975 (the fellow who finished the top), Ron Kapellen #5041, and Kevin Dalton. Before coming down each level took 36 cans. Total number of cans used: 1,026. Which is over 42 cases.

Foreign Brand Changes

Marcella Schinski #3715

A column, or an entire publication, is only as good as it's sources of news, and my sources for this column are the greatest; Wallace Steffan [12660], Horst Wendland [780], Scott Oglesby [6169], Dave Doucette [13355], Claude Walton [11769], Dave Jutras [11605], Torbjorn Ekman [8520], Marcia Kasischke [2441], Marlowe Schlegel [3037], W. Pincus Jaspert [2295], John Vetter [369], Darrold Bussell [360], John Kerr [10964], Jim Mc Coy [136], plus my local reporters from Tampa, Florida; Bob Gervais [5793], Rick Saa [10450], and Mike Schille [14240].

Alpine Lager Beer (Alpine Breweries Ltd.) Saint John, N.B. Dartmouth, N.S.. Same Basic design and colors but big difference in size of letters. Lager Beer is now in all black letters across the bottom of the can and Alpine Breweries Limited oval seal appears in gold on the side of the can.

1. Andreas Pils (Andreas) Hafen, West Germany. All new white can with red, silver, and black lettering.
2. Berella (T S R Theakston) Masham, U.K.. An innovative near beer can containing two languages. Theakston has retained the kneeling man on this can as well. (Due to a break in communications, only the non-English side of the can is shown.)

Carlsberg International Beer IIB (Brewed & canned by Pripps under license of Carlsberg-Copenhagen). So new-yet obsolete green can with gold crown.

3. Corona (Corona Inc.) Santurce, Puerto Rico. A totally new design in this 10 oz. silver can with a blue band, blue lettering and a gold crown.

Courage-This beer can in four colors, was produced by Courage in Melbourne to mark the opening of Melbourne's tallest building Nauru House, which is owned by the Republic of Nauru. Courage always supplies Nauru with a special can, the previous design showing a fishing scene, and the present can showing the building, complete to a maiden sitting on the moon over the building.

4. Gatzweilers Alt Dusseldorf (gebr. Gatzweiler Ohg.) Dusseldorf, Germ. Vibrant green can with yellow lettering picturing a brewery building.

Henninger Export-Bier (Henninger) Frankfurt, Germany. Same basic design and colors but la birra del mastro berraio now on this can in black letters and EXPORT-BIER now gold letters trimmed in black.

5. Howson Algraphy Special Beer"From Britain comes a can destined to become a rarity. The Howson-Algraphy company in Leeds, one of the world's largest producers of offset printing plates (which are also used to print on tinfoil and aluminum for beer cans) had a special promotion can produced this year for a printing exhibition held in Germany. Filled with Watney's Special Ale, the can contents were quickly drunk up by exhibition visitors, and the cans promptly thrown away. A few cans remained and were given away as prizes for every mile walked by 23 members of the Institute of Management in Printing who completed the 40-mile walkathon to be rewarded with a can a mile each. The walk for charity raised more than $3000. The cans themselves are not particularly beautiful, but---rare."

6. Kellerbrau Lager (Jarvis Canning Co. Ltd.) Bedford, U.K.. Britain's newest independent canning company has canned this beer, as well as canning four other brands for various breweries. This can features a man in an alpine costume drinking beer in a rathskeller, and I can't think of a better place to have a beer.
7. Key Strong Country Ale (Key Quality) Ilford, Essex, U.K.. The fourth can issued in this series is green with a brown oval framed in gold, containing the brand name.
Labatt's 50 Biere Ale (Labatt) 8 cities, Canada. The Ontario can has the "s" in Labatt's, whereas the Quebec can does not (described in the September issue). In addition the gold lettering forming the rectangle on the can is also different.
8. Lyck Holms Lettol Klass I (Pripps) Sweden. This can is one of a 15 can series of 12 oz. cans featuring 3 action sport scenes across the bottom of each can. This could have been an exceptional series of cans except the scenes are out of register (printing), and are therefore not of exceptional quality. There are 7 different sport scenes shown in scenes 1, 2 or 3 in a varied position, thereby creating 15 different cans.
Mein Brau (Kirin) Japan. The brewery is pushing ahead with a new beer as well as diversifying strongly into foods. "Quality is the main theme" of the brewery by buying only the finest raw materials-hops from Czechoslovakia and West Germany, malt from Australia, plus the breweries brewing secrets.
9. Moninger Export (Moninger) Karlsruhe, Germany. Complete all new design-all gold can.
10. Pacena Centenario (Nacional) Industria, Bolivia. An exquisite can in red and gold with a conquistador, etc. within the oval.
11. Pacena Pilsener A mate to the Centenario can but in blue/gold and white with a figure (similar to Old King Cole) astride a barrel with a brew in one hand and a septr in the other within the oval of this can.
12. Red Stripe Lager Beer (Charles Wells Ltd.) Bedford, U.K.. Under license from Desnoes and Geddes Ltd., Kingston, Jamaica. A 275ml can and first West Indian beer to be canned under license in the U.K. It is being marketed specifically amongst the black areas of the population. An all white can with red and black colors.
Ritter Special Dunkel (Dortmunder) Dortmund, Germany. Same basic label as appeared in the 35cl can, but this can has the word Dunkel directly beneath the word Special.
13. Schultheiss Diat Pilsner Typ (Schultheiss) Berlin, Germany. New design-all white can with gold, red, green and black lettering.
14. Steffl Export (Schwechat) Vienna, Austria. Quite a major change to this can which is now gold and white and has Worldwide from Austria in script at the top of the can.
15. Streamline Low Carbohydrate Beer (Ruddle & Co.) Oakham, Rutland, U.K. The U.K. has joined the calorie conscious world with this new brand in an all white can with black and gold colors.

Foreign Beer Cans
Are Beautiful

16-18. Tennant's Lager (Tennant Caledonian) Glasgow, U.K. All difficulties have been overcome and the Scottish lassies series has been issued. Three poses were featured in the September issue with the three remaining poses featured at this time; 16-Erica, 17-Marie, 18-May.

Tsing Tao Beer Peking, China. July was an active month for trade delegations to and from Peking. Among them were a U.S. packaging group, which presented a series of technical papers, and it is believed that several of the firms may soon be involved in a whole plant sale of canning equipment. Among the possible attractions for China in canning equipment are stepped-up exports of its tasty beer now available in bottles only. [China Trade Notes- August 15, 1977] Got any Chinese beer cans? Well you may have in the near future.

19-23. Tucher Ubersee (Brau A.G.) Nurnberg, Germany. An outstanding five can set featuring architecture, etc. local to the country; 19-Albrecht Durer-Haus, 20-Burg mit Durerplatz, 21-Heilig-Geist-Spital, 22-Natv-Maters-G.de Lusignan, 23-Schoner Brunnen.

24. Victoria Cerveza (Compania Cervecera) Nicaragua. A striking look-alike for the U.S. Miller can in the same gold, green, and white colors.

West End Draught Beer (South Australian Brewing Co.) Adelaide, So. Australia. Another commemorative can featuring the Lions International 25th Multiple District 201 Convention.

BEER CANS DON'T LITTER.. PEOPLE DO!

Beer Can Collectors of America WANT AD BULLETIN

As of October 1, 1975 the cost of an ad in the Monthly Want Ad Bulletin will be $1.00. In this way the members who place ads will help to pay the cost of the printing and mailing of the Bulletin. For $1.00 your ad will be read by over 6,000 Beer Can Traders.

Check or money order must accompany your ad. Want ads are available only to BCCA members. Each member is allowed to place no more than one (1) ad per month. We ask that you keep ads as short as possible. All ads are subject to condensing. No ad will be accepted for buying or selling. Ads will be accepted for beer cans only. Ads will be published on a first come, first serve policy. If your want ad is received too late for this month's issue, it will be printed in the next issue. All ads will include addresses. It is up to the individual answering an ad if a self addressed, stamped envelope be included. However, chances are your answer will get a faster reply using a S.A.S.E. PLEASE INCLUDE NAME, BCCA NUMBER, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE & ZIP CODE WHEN PLACING AN AD.

NOTICE

ALL BULLETINS HAVE EIGHT (8) SECTIONS TO MAKE IT MORE USEFUL FOR COLLECTORS LOOKING FOR SPECIAL CANS:
1. NOVICE, 2. CURRENTS, 3. OBSOLETE TAB, 4. FLAT TOPS, 5. CONE TOPS, 6. FOREIGN, 7. GALLON AND 8. GENERAL.
THE MEMBER SUBMITTING THE AD SHOULD DECIDE WHICH SECTION HE WANTS AND MARK THE BLANK ACCORDINGLY.

PLEASE WORD YOUR AD AS BRIEFLY AND CLEARLY AS POSSIBLE. SOME ADS MUST BE EDITED SO THEY WILL FIT THE TWO LINE LIMIT, SO KEEP THIS IN MIND WHEN YOU COMPOSE YOUR AD -- IT WILL MAKE MY JOB MUCH EASIER.

WANT AD NOTICE

This is the last News Report that will contain want ads. First Class mailing of want ads has long been recognized as the only answer to the constant complaint that some states receive the ads long before others. We have gradually been working toward that goal, as our financial resources permit.

I am happy to report that the Budget Committee, in its drafting of the 1978 budget, was able to allocate a few more bucks to the Want-Ad Bulletin. As a result, all Want-Ad Bulletins will be mailed First Class in the future. But we are not rich enough to afford this luxury every 30 days. Beginning in 1978, the Want Ad Bulletin will be mailed every 45 days on the following schedule:

January 1	February 15
April 1	May 15
July 1	August 15
October 1	November 15

The deadline for receipt of your ad will be one month prior to the mailing date. While this may seem like a long time to you, please realize that the ads must be sent to Columbus for editing, returned to the office for typing, then sent to the printer, then to the mailing service, and then (alas) to the Post Office. If each party is allowed an average of only four business days turnaround time (which is optimistic!), that's four calendar weeks right there.

I hope you can understand. We are trying to provide the most service that we can possibly squeeze out of $12.00 per year.

Well, Convention VII has come and gone, but not without leaving many good memories for those who were able to attend this year's gathering. Much of the success for putting on one of the best Conventions yet can be directly attributed to Bruce Gregg, Jack Turner and the KC's Best Chapter members. They worked hard and long on this one and it showed. The trading center and table arrangements were the best to date. In fact, it will be hard to beat this year's setup—plenty of room and plenty of tables for everyone! In my September column I mentioned that we could expect to see a number of new cans and changes in Kansas City. It turned out to be a new can hunter's paradise. In U.S. cans alone, I came back with twenty-four that had either made their appearance in Kansas City or had just come out previous to the Convention. The Brickskeller series accounted for eleven of the cans. The balance was made up of five new brands and eight design changes. As usual, much of this column can be attributed to your fellow-collectors who took the time and effort to keep me posted on what's new. This month's thanks go out to: Rusty Butler (13444), Walt Wimer, Jr. (13267), Gene (2004) & Peggy (10124) Migliori, C. W. Craibe (7082), Gordy Duroscher (13307), Curt Fogas (8926), Marcella (3715) & Bob (682) Schinski, Bill Helsley (193), Don Lammers (1209), Ray Knisley (877), Oscar Mehl (2573), Hal Leeker (843), Ron Schulz (3166), Paul (6460) and Marcia (460) Sticht, Ed Franco (7035), Bob Bendula (924), John Holmes, Jr. (3136), Jim Dale, Jr. (7773), Rusty Wyar (666), Premium Mugrage (791), Steve Lyons (11767), Ken Simon (10269), Kevin Knutson (13401), Alan Birdsell (14065), Chris Guiley (11681), Ken (218) & Lois (288) Hiestand, Al Grill (4665), Bob DeCamp (13308), Chuck Nekvasil (525), Clint Leonhardt (1653), Tom Jones (12519), Gary Reichow (6940), Ray Menz (13784), Tom Ashton (13537), Eric Sands (9755), Ken Schneider (849), Dick Rausche (526), Alex Schwertner, Jr. (3094) and Ron Moermond (224).

ABC BEER and ALE (Eastern) has added .35 ML next to 12 FLUID OUNCES on their cans.

1. AUGSBURGER OLD WORLD BAVARIAN STYLE (Jos. Huber) finally made its appearance in cans. Primary color is metallic green, white, gold and black. Can is crimped steel.
2. BLACK HORSE ALE (Black Horse) is back on the market with slight design alterations. The word ALE has a new style of lettering and an additional X has been added to the left side of the oval (the right side still has three Xs). Also, the horse now has an eye.
3. BILLY (Falls City), named after none other than Mr. Billy Carter, one of America's primo beer drinkers, is now on the market. A special formula was created for and approved by Billy Carter by the Falls City Brewing Co. in Louisville, Kentucky. Plans call for the new brand to be introduced in Georgia (where else!) with national marketing and distribution to follow. The top of the label will read, "Brewed especially for and with the personal approval of one of America's all-time great beer drinkers, Billy Carter." The bottom of the label reads, "I had this beer brewed up just for me. I think it's the best I ever tasted. And I've tasted a lot. I think you'll like it, too.", followed by Billy Carter's signature. Look for other regional brewers to get involved with this brand.
4. BRICKSKELLER (Pittsburgh) is finally on the market with their endangered species--nine cans in the set. Graphically, the cans leave a lot to be desired. The animal drawings appear to have been hastily done and were rendered in black and white rather than in full-color as I think many had anticipated. Already, one of the cans is on the endangered species list--the Texas Red Wolf. For some unexplained reason, there were far fewer of the Texas Red Wolf cans produced and their availability is extremely limited. In Kansas City I heard stories of collectors going through pallets of cases of the new BRICKSKELLER cans only to turn up with a couple of the Texas Red Wolf cans. As of this writing, the cans are only available through the Brickskeller Saloon in Washington, D.C. and their sales outlet. However, I am told that once the initial distribution is made, they presumably will go on sale through Pittsburgh Brewing Company's normal marketing area.
5. BRICKSKELLER SALOON STYLE (Pittsburgh) is now on the market available through the Brickskeller Saloon in Washington, D.C. This crimped steel can features the same color scheme used in the endangered animal species series--cream, black, white and blue.

6. BRICKSKELLER SALOON STYLE LAGER (Pittsburgh) rounds out the new cans available through the Brickskeller Saloon. Like the other cans, this can features the same colors.
BUDWEISER LAGER (Anheuser-Busch) is now available in the short squat style 8 ounce size.
7. CARLING 71 LIGHT PILSNER (Carling National) is one of the newest members in the "light" brigade. Like so many of the recent additions, this beer has joined the group of lowest calorie beers. In this case, 71 calories—50% fewer than Carling National's regular beer. This extruded steel can comes complete with UPC marking.
8. CHIPPEWA FALLS WISCONSIN LIGHT PREMIUM (Jacob Leinenkugel) is a commemorative issue saluting the 1st annual Pure Water Days celebration held August 19, 20, 21, 1977. Some 90,000 cans were reportedly made for this event.
9. DUNKEL BIER (Pittsburgh) is finally being marketed after months of waiting. The can is crimped steel like so many of the recent issues of the Pittsburgh Brewing Company. In case the little man shown on the front of the can looks familiar to you, he should. You'll find him on the OLD GERMAN PREMIUM LAGER—one of Pittsburgh Brewing's brands. In fact, Alt Deutsch Brand means Old German Brand.
10. GOLDEN BREW FINE PILSNER (James Hanley) made its appearance at about 1:00 p.m. on Saturday at the Convention thanks to the local Falstaff distributor in the Kansas City area. It is being marketed through the Thriftway Stores chain in Missouri and Kansas.
11. IROQUOIS INDIAN HEAD (Iroquois) is back again with the same design minus the horizontal gold stripes encircling the can.
12. LONE STAR DRAFT (Lone Star) is now out in an aluminum can so noted with the words ALL ALUMINUM CAN appearing above the LONE STAR logo.
13. MASTER'S CHOICE BAVARIAN STYLE PREMIUM (Duncan) came out just after the Convention. It is a red, white, blue and silver color scheme on a steel can. Foreign can collectors will easily recognize this can's design as being virtually identical to ZULIA CERVEZA from Venezuela.
MILLER HIGH LIFE (Miller) is now out in an 8 version of their 12 ounce style can.
14. NATIONAL EXTRA EXTRA LIGHT (National) is a can that was produced almost two years ago to join the battle of the lower calorie beers. However, the beer was never marketed because of the legal entanglements created by the Miller Brewing Company for their LITE Beer. Subsequently, the dummy cans found their way into collectors hands in recent months. There is some speculation that the brand might eventually be marketed, but this would seem highly doubtful in view of the fact that Carling National just introduced their CARLING 71 LIGHT PILSNER.
15. ORTLIEB'S (Henry F. Ortlieb), mentioned last issue, shown this issue.
16. PABST EXTRA LIGHT (Pabst) is a new brew containing 50% less calories (70) than regular PABST beer. The can is aluminum with gold, red, white and blue colors. It has the UPC marking.
17. PEARL LIGHT LAGER (Pearl), which was covered in the September issue, has already made a change in their can. They've added the wording 70 CALORIES above the logo emblem.
18. PRINZ BRAU (Prinz Brau) has added the word ALASKA preceding the word BEER.
19. PRINZ EXTRA (Prinz Brau) has dropped the wording UNCHANGED SINCE 1516 and replaced that phrase with ORIGINAL RECIPE SINCE 1516.

20. RED WHITE & BLUE SPECIAL LAGER (Pabst) is now out in an extruded steel can.
21. REGAL SELECT PREMIUM (General) has replaced the word LIGHT with the word PREMIUM.
22. SCHLITZ (Jos. Schlitz) is now back in a steel can with two new brewing locations--Hawaii and Syracuse. Also, the beer is being marketed in an 8 ounce size can.
23. SCHMIDT (Rainier) is now out on the market by this brewery--a subsidiary of G. Heileman Brewing Co. Apparently, all 21 cans in the series will be issued. This is an aluminum can and consequently, it does not have all of the color that the Heileman steel cans do. The phrase The Brew that Grew with the Great Northwest is shown in red rather than white.
24. SCHMIDT (Rainier), in the half quart size, is now on the market by this brewery--a subsidiary of the G. Heileman Brewing Co.
25. SCHMIDT'S OKTOBERFEST (C. Schmidt & Sons) was introduced in October (naturally!) and might well be off the market by the time you receive this issue as it was rumored that this brand would have a limited existence.
26. STEEL VALLEY (Pittsburgh) is another new commemorative can issued by the Pittsburgh Brewing Co. This crimped steel can salutes the industries and workers of the steel valley area in Pennsylvania.
27. TIGER (C. Schmidt & Sons), mentioned last issue, shown this issue.
28. TIVOLI (Blitz-Weinhard) is reportedly on the market by this brewery.
29. TOPPER PILSENER (Eastern) has added 354 ml following the can's contents.
30. TUBORG GOLD (Carling National) is marketing their brew in a KING SIZE 16 ounce can.

TUBORG GOLD (Carling National) is reported to be about ready to issue a schedule can for the Phoenix Suns basketball team. Information passed along to me indicates the can will be marketed with beer as well as being issued as bank cans.

New tab junked by Coors beer

GOLDEN, Colo. The Adolph Coors Co. said Tuesday it decided to abandon its "press tab two" opener on beer cans because of complaints from beer drinkers.

He said the decision would cost the company millions of dollars and said the opener was on cans that Coors shipped to 11 states in the company's 14-state marketing area.

Coors said the "press tab two" opener required drinkers to break a seal atop a can, press two scored edges with thumb pressure and push the tear-shaped tab inside the can.

Beer traced to Noah's Ark use

Beer, according to an Assyrian tablet of 2,000 B.C., was one of the foods that sustained passengers in the Biblical Noah's legendary Ark.

The United States Brewers Association says the tablet is the first recorded mention of the brew, which has been credited with healing powers throughout history.

Saxons, according to the association, used beer, warmed and blended with medicinal roots, to cure hiccups. Syrians used beer to induce relaxation and Arabs used it in bread as a leavening agent.

M&S lose taste for the real ales

REAL ALE has suffered a setback in the supermarket. Marks & Spencer, which introduced six "county" ales from smaller breweries like Ruddles of Rutland and Sam Smith's of Tadcaster to its stores in Christmas, 1975, is dropping the range. From the middle of next month, supplies of Country Bitter (i.e. Ruddles County) and Strong Suffolk Pale (alias Greene King) will no longer be available. The reason is simple. They simply didn't sell well enough.

"We are just selling out now," reports M & S food director Henry Lewis. "Last Christmas we were selling county ales in about 200 stores but in January this was cut down to 30." Even in these selected outlets, however, sales of these traditionally brewed ales did not justify their shelf space. The decision is a mild-and-bitter blow to brewers like Belhaven, Greene King, Ruddles and Smith, who had hoped to make their mark in Marks.

"The plain truth is that the specialist beers did not sell," commented a spokesman for Marks & Spencer. "Our canned beers were all made by specialist brewers and had the seal of approval of the Campaign for Real Ale. But the public wouldn't buy them and we have been phasing them out for some time." "M & S has almost emptied its barrel."

For purists, of course, real ale is naturally conditioned in the cask and served by beer engine without benefit of carbon dioxide. It follows that beer out of a bottle or can is never entirely "real." Nevertheless, the failure of the Marks experiment is either a blow for CAMRA or an indication that wives were reluctant to indulge their husbands' tastes at a premium price.

Who doesn't?

Busch Has Plan for Solar Heat

ST. LOUIS — Anheuser-Busch Inc., the nation's leading beer producer, says it will soon become the first brewery in the country to use solar energy in its beer-making process.

The firm announced on Tuesday that a system is being installed that will use solar energy to heat water for the pasteurization of bottled beer at its St. Louis plant.

A spokesman said the installation represents "a major commitment by our company toward finding and using alternative energy systems."

The system, designed by Barry-Wehmiller Co., is to be coupled with a pasteurizer which processes about 1,000 bottles of beer a minute, the firm said. Completion of the project is scheduled for the end of December.

Brewery seeks federal loan

Orange, N.J.

Financially troubled Rheingold Breweries, the nation's 14th largest brewer, needs a major federal loan to keep its only remaining plant open, company officials said.

"Most regional breweries are caught in the same squeeze," said Allan J. Lemditz, a senior executive vice president of the brewery that distributes only in the northeast.

"The national breweries spend heavily on advertising and the price of beer hasn't kept pace with the costs of producing it," he said.

"We're hanging in there and fighting back tenaciously," Mr. Lemditz said. "But there's no way of disguising the fact that we're in trouble."

The company has changed hands twice in the past five years. Its present owner, Chock Full O'Nuts, bought the firm from Pepsi Cola Company three years ago.

Rheingold's Orange plant is the only brewery the company has kept open. A plant in New Bedford, Mass., was shut down and the Brooklyn, N.Y., facility, once the company's largest brewery, now serves as a warehouse and distribution center.

Mr. Lemditz said he did not know exactly how much of a loan the company was seeking. "It is a substantial figure, though."

He said sales have increased, but costs have increased faster.

New Study Indicates Beer May Help Ward Off Heart Attacks

BOSTON

— Here's news to drink to. A new medical study says that a daily bottle of beer may help prevent heart attacks.

A study conducted in Honolulu has found that men who sip one or two beers a day have just more than half as many fatal heart ailments as teetotalers.

"This finding is consistent with a possible direct beneficial effect of alcohol intake on the risk of coronary heart disease," the researchers wrote.

Their findings were published in today's issue of the New England Journal of Medicine.

The researchers stressed that the people with healthier hearts were moderate drinkers. An accompanying editorial in the journal warned that while a few beers may be helpful, heavy use of alcohol can cause serious heart trouble.

The Honolulu study also found there was no evidence that coffee drinking causes heart attacks. This possible link had been reported in earlier studies.

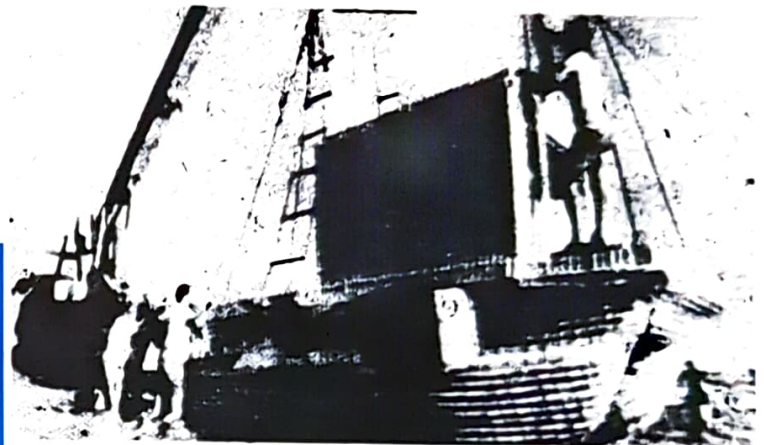

The researchers examined the drinking habits of 7,705 Japanese men living in Hawaii. Of these, 294 developed heart disease.

Among the nondrinkers, 6.8 of every 1,000 people died of heart disease during the six-year study. The rate among men who drank the equivalent of one or two beers a day was 4 deaths per 1,000.

The researchers said the amount of heart illness was significantly lower for those who drank up to four beers a day.

The researchers were not sure why moderate drinkers have less heart trouble. However, they speculated that drinking may be associated with altered levels of cholesterol in the blood.

About two-thirds of the drinkers in the study used only beer. There were not enough heavy drinkers or men who drank wine or hard liquor to determine what effect these factors have on heart trouble.

Clem Jones, former Lord Mayor of Brisbane, Australia, has reached his goal — Singapore — after a 13-day, 2000-mile voyage abroad from Darwin aboard the 24-foot Can-Tiki. Can-Tiki was made of 15,000 beer cans (empty). It arrived minus a few which fell off in rough seas, plus a few (full) which the crew consumed. "But the beer was really in short supply," Jones said.

Competition Gets Tougher

Pgh. Brewing Loss Swells in Third Qtr.

Pittsburgh Brewing Co., which makes Iron City Beer, reported a deep third quarter loss of $154,293 and cited sharply stepped up price competition from other brands.

"Iron City Beer sales have been soft this summer despite revitalized advertising, sales promotional and public relations efforts," said Chairman George L. Pfeil and President Louis Slais in a letter to shareholders.

SALES FOR THE quarter were $5,954,541 compared to $6,339,422 in the year-earlier period. Sales in the same 1975 quarter, when prices were lower, were more than $8 million.

The third quarter loss amounted to 41 cents a share and compared to a loss of $127,791, or 12 cents a share in the same quarter last year.

For the nine months ended July 31, sales were $17,967,971 versus $18,725,084. The loss was $143,156, or 41 cents a share, compared to a loss of $228,889, or 22 cents in the same period last year.

Although Iron City sales have been soft, the Pittsburgh Brewing officers said Robin Hood Cream Ale, introduced almost a year ago, "is selling well and ahead of our projections." They also announced that the firm is introducing a new beer called Sierra, "which will be entirely different from Iron City and will be sold at a premium price."

Pittsburgh Brewing Co. hasn't reported an annual profit since 1971, but its officers have consistently maintained that the city's last brewery can again become profitable.

A COLLECTION OF MEMORABILIA FROM CONVENTION VII. MADE UP OF QUOTE-ABLE QUOTES AND OVERHEARDS FROM MISC. PHOLKS.

Concerning the KC flood, although very tragic, like everything else it had a light side.

"Hey, did you see that the Metro
North theatre has a special showing of 'The Deep'?"

It appears also that Bruce Gregg and the Chamber of Commerce had a flood of their own. A flood of calls. "Is the CANvention cancelled?" To which these warm & witty replies were used....."No, it just has been flooded down the road a ways...
No, but there sure are plenty of dumpers for trade now".....

Also from Bruce Gregg.. Seems that KC was to be a test market for Miller's new Players Beer.
Howsoever, just before VII, the truckload destined for KC was in a wreck. Someone called Bruce to let him know that there were all these nice cans of beer all over I-70. But, it was ignored, see? Until the evening news came on, and the situation was explained that it was a new brand for a test market. Now you know why there really was a flood.

Overheard.. "That hat looks like something the cow left."

The truth is finally out about what the P.K. in P.K. Frawley REALLY stands for. Pretty Kinky.

Henry Herbst, #70- "I don't want the Steel Valley can til it comes out in aluminum."

Rolfe "Pee Wee" Weiss #1044-(also after a heavy duty drinking event)-"I was going to brush my teeth
this morning, but I couldn't find a lawn mower."

Also, for a change a kind word about Rolfe. In his search for America, he stopped in St. Louis, and was promptly put to work
by The Little Round Who Ex-president. Good old Rolfe built all the nice storage shelves in the new offices. Ain't he grand?

On the subject of chapters:
Several new ones were brought up at KC. The only realistic one of the bunch is the Playboy Chapter, which Dick Ad-mowicz #344 is forming. Seems these old boys are an offshoot(so to speak) of the prejudiced TONTINE group which consists only of BCCAs, who have been to all 7 CANventions. Well, the Playboy group are the ones who have been to all except the first. Sooner or later someone will start one for those who have been to the past five, etc. etc.
Think I will start one for those who have been only to #IV, V, and VII. Dan Reitz, #2126 is trying to form one for those who have never been to a CANvention. Even though he can't be in it. Unfortunately.

JoAnn Brown, wife of #6189, Ron Brown, after he was turned down time after time while trying to trade...
"Anyone want to go trade with themselves??"

Don Morrow, #5381- (when asked about his affection for rust) "Mint is gauche."

Lew Cady, #98- (about being seen with Ian Russell)"I could get malled for possession of 124 lbs. of dope."

Overheard.. about the holiday coffee shop... "I guess having this fly in my soup is better than the other way around."

Overheard.. after Hershey won for 1980..."I guess Ahrens (John #9) likes being Canvention chairman in every other year."

Dan Reitz, #2126-"I won the Jeff Berg look-alike contest."
Is that really a victory?

John Phillips, #1914-"I'm going to have my own beer can produced.
Gonna call it Pink Squirrel. Then I'm going to put them all away in a big pit, until they are good dumpers, dig them up, write a beer can guide, and put there value as astronomical."

Gerl Schwartz, wife of Herb #1922, came across an unwanted big find whilst sitting in her plush room at the Phillips House. A big piece of plaster fell off the ceiling, and into her lap.

Bill Christenson, #33- "I think the CANvention should be in the most inaccessible city."

Hershey should be the most interesting of all CANventions. Seems they plan to have an outside trade session or if it rains or sometthing, then plan a big tent to be used.

Overheard...(about the St. Louis demonstrations at the trade sessions)
"All that little parade
needs is a guy to follow in with a shovel and scoop."

A few ingenious types carried walkie-talkies on the trade floor, in case a hot prospect came around. Not a bad idea t'all!

Overheard...(about Max Robb's choice of wardrobe for the banquet..."Looks like Early Halloween to me."

REWARD IS OFFERED TO ANY
SIOUX FALLS, S.D. AREA COLLECTOR! We stayed in your fair city on the way back from KC. And during one of the mini-hurricanes, my beloved beast up XXXX Stetson blew away. So, if you are in the vicinity of
I-29 and the 41st St.
exit, and see a lonely
brown hat laying there,
pick it up and send it home. Please! It will probably be in the area on the west side of the Interstate.

This picture explains 3 things; 1. Why there was no ice on the 19th floor of the Holiday Inn.
2. Why Pee Wee Weiss, Mick Weiss, Jim Henry, and Bob McClure were so fragrant after 2 days.
3. And what the bar is for in the upper part of the picture. It does not explain, however, the shampoo bottle.

A note to the Holiday Inn: T.C. Reinke is not John Talbott.

See the obviously angry person in this photo? It is Steve Van Slyke, #10437. Nope, he's not doing an Irish Jig because he just traded for a 007. Nope, he didn't get a hot foot from Paul Kalous. He IS (really) smashing his El Cheapo Camera. Why? Cause the pictures of Miss Beer can that he took did not turn out!! Sez Steve: "She is as beautiful as a dump full of Bud Beck. I've had the fortune of seeing both, and each was a heart throbbing experience!"

Bert Plew, #364- "Hmmm, doesn't appear to be many collectors here from North Webster, Indiana."

Bill Christenson, #33- "Casper probably would have won the bid for 1980, if it weren't for Hershey and St. Louis."

Overheard... "Wonder when they will change the oil on this carpet?" This of course being in reference to the carpet in the Holiday Inn Coffee Shop.

Mick Weiss, #3969- In regards to the spathy shown be over 50% of the attending BCCA'ers towards the Saturday morning business meeting.... "Maybe they'd have a better turn out if they didn't have this during the premieres of all the new Saturday morning cartoons."

Out of about 1100 collectors at KC, only about 450 showed up for the business meeting. I'll bet that there were 1100 around for the commertative can pickup, though.

Premium Bill Mugrage, #791- "Can anyone tell me where the test car trade area is?" A sly remark in regards to the special trade areas made up for foreign, cone top and full can collectors.

OVERHEARD.... When the usual garbage was brought up about changing the dates of the CANvention to summer...

"Will someone ask the BCCA to pay for babysitters, too?"

Upon arising in the A.M. after a heavy duty drinking spree... Ron Moermond, #224- "Anyone GOT a Vodka and Scope?"

Keith Whitmore, #3540 when he received the 3rd place trophy for the can throw....

"I got 3rd place because I couldn't hit the ground from the garage roof."

Overheard; When 2 pholks were discussing the front page article of one of the KC newspapers concerning the announcement of the new Billy's Beer, that Falls City & perhaps several other brewers will be making. Pholk A: "Din't he have his own brand once before?" Pholk B: "What was it?" Pholk A: "Mule Malt Liquor!"

Some of this biarny, and most of the picture credits go to Lew Cady, #98.

A non-convention related note... this from Alan Birdsell, #14065. "Imagine you have heard of Billy's Beer by now. Well, they should team up with Bert Lance, then they could have 2 beers. One call Billy's Draft, and the other, Bert's Overdraft." Hmmm again

Please remember that this column is written in my own particular style. If the words hell or damn offend you, there are 2 things you can do.

1. Quit BCCA. Anyone who collects beer cans is no Puritan.
2. Eat this page.

It's not Max Robb's special dumping bag. It IS a new addition for Max's other collection. That one being shorts. The underwear type. These were extra especially made for Max by Char Percox, (the one without the mustache), and presented to Max at KC. Said Max... "Gee, I hope they fit!"

The biggest coincidence. Ever. On the 19th floor of the Holiday, Ken Schneider, #849 was lodged. Also on the 19th floor there was one Carol Pichler. Ken Schneider is a beer can collector. Carol Pichler is not. Ken Schneider was in KC for a CanVention, whilst Ms. Pichler was there for a convention, something to do with the Poof Stamp Program. Ms. Pichler lives in Boston; Mr. Schneider in Cheyenne, Wyoming. HOWEVER, Mr. Schneider's parents sold there old house to Ms. Pichlers parents in 1936, in Cheyenne. That being after Ken was born in the home. And a few years after that, Ms. Pichler was born in the same house. And that is a hell of a coincidence.

Martin Landey, #78- While pointing out a particular hard to get Narragansett can in his display... "Up until a month ago, I thought they only made those in dumpsters."

Bob McCluse, #106- Whilst glaring at Miss Beer Can.... "I never collected gallons before; But now....."

Overheard... "How many cans did you pick up?" "NONE, I was afraid of getting caught."

Our recently departed President, now joins the most exclusive chapter of BCCA. The Who Chapter. Its members include the following: Denver Who?

Larry Who?
Robert Who?
Gil Who?
Henry Who?
Jerry Who? and now
The Little Round Who?

Still another chapter to be. It will consist of members #1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, etc.

They'll be known as the Odd Fellows.

A Bill Henderson suggestion; "The state flower of Missouri is now the sponge."

Tyler Hall, a "guest", answered the hall phone. Figure it out.

The Bob Gustafson Corner: "I bought a case of Great American Beer, hoping to find my old position, right field. But all I got was Short-stops. Maybe its one position each World Series.....Also; "Got to catch the three o'clock elevator".... "I want rust! I want rust! I can't afford the insurance for grade one!"

Miller lost two court battles over use of the word "light" by other breweries. Within four weeks time, Olympia Brewing Co. and G. Heileman Brewing Co. were granted permission by two different courts to continue utilizing the term. A U.S. district court rejected Miller Brewing's request for a temporary injunction against Olympia's Olympia Gold Light beer. Then, a U.S. appeals court overturned an earlier preliminary injunction by a U.S. district court against Heileman's Premium Light.

Heileman president Russell Cleary hailed the decision for his company, saying "this tilts the whole balance of these lawsuits (Miller has 11 suits pending against American brewers)." Miller's reaction: "Miller does not interpret it as a defeat or loss of our case." The Miller spokesman added the suit will be returned to the original Chicago district court for judgement of Miller's claims, minus the preliminary injunction request.

Due to extensive Convention coverage Chapter Brewings and Can Close-up does not appear in this issue. However, they will return next issue.
